

MB Chairman: Palestine and the New Era

Addressing the Palestinian cause Muslim Brotherhood chairman Dr. Mohamed Badie called for the country's next parliament to review the Camp David peace accord with Israel.

In his weekly statement Titled "Palestine and the new era" Badie stated that the next phase requires Egyptians to unite and demand the ending of normalization and to review the Camp David agreement. Furthermore Badie called for cancellation of natural-gas exports to Israel and industrial zones describing them as economic interests.

Badie confirmed that the group will continue to work calling for permanently opening the Rafah crossing point with the Gaza Strip in an effort to end the issue of securing the borders of the "Zionists".
