

MB rejects allegations it's downplaying significance of Islamic ethics and teachings published on 'Ikhwanweb' which sparked controversy and allegations surrounding it, the article. In light of a recent Muslim Brotherhood's media spokesperson and executive bureau member Dr. Mohamed Morsy highlights that there is a clear misunderstanding of the group's views.

In a press statement Morsy ascertained that allegations from numerous sources accusing the MB of downplaying the significance of adhering to the ethics and morals of Islam by defending certain behaviors is completely out of line. The MB refutes the claims and wishes to state in the strongest possible terms that just as it is firmly committed to condemning any dictatorial, corrupt and oppressive action it is set on condemning any behavior unacceptable to the teachings of Islam and any suggestion to the contrary is simply untrue.
