

MB chairman calls for the halt of blood spilling between Yemenis and Saudis.

The chairman of the Muslim Brotherhood movement Mr Mohamed Mahdy Akef beseeched the Saudi Arabian King Abd Allah Bin Abdul Aziz to bring to an end the fighting with the Yemenis which has been going on for some time.

The endless spilling of innocent Muslim blood needs to be stopped and an initiative for reconciliation be adopted for the well being of the Yemenis and the country's resources.

The chairman acknowledged that the Saudis had the right to defend their boundaries however he called on all Muslim scholars and intellectuals to get involved and act as intermediaries in an effort to settle differences between the Yemenis and Saudis.
