

History reminds us of the downfall and failure of former oppressors and tyrannical regimes.

Dr Mahmoud Ezzat Secretary general for the Muslim Brotherhood confirmed that a second decision to re-arrest Dr Ossama Nasr and his group demonstrates an increase in the animosity and violations of the civil rights similar to that of former rulers who's tyranny and oppression resulted in their collapse.

In a statement to Ikhwanweb Ezzat addressed the families of the detainees praising them "You have set an example of patience and endurance in the face of injustice: moreover your children have set examples by excelling in their studies and topping their classes under these circumstances. Despite all these conditions you have been nothing short of a source of pride to the community".

Ezzat also delivered words of encouragement to the detainees, "Allah has made from you all examples of patience, stamina and fortitude. In choosing this path, you have raised the banner of spreading Islam and with your faith, confidence and devotion have proved to the nation that sincerity and dedication is the true and righteous path in which Allah will reward those who have persevered and will similarly punish the tyrannical oppressors".
