

5 Al-Azhar Students Referred To Disciplinary Boards

The Faculty of Commerce, Al-Azhar University, referred on Sunday five students to disciplinary boards upon security tips; it accused them of offering services to students, including exam memos.

These measures are part of an ongoing campaign against reformist students in all Egyptian Universities.

The following is a list of the students referred to disciplinary boards:

- 1- Mahmoud Matar Mahmoud, fourth year
- 2- Mohamed Abdul Razek Abdul Tawwab Singer, second year
- 3- Osama Mohamed Abu Zeid Al Shiwi, second year
- 4- Hamdan Sabri Mohamed, second year
- 5- Baha' Al-Din Salama Guda, first year
