

Youssef Nada: Trust in Ibrahim Munir has been recognized by the Muslim Brotherhood since the third General Guide, and it was renewed by the General Guides after him.

The former Commissioner for International Relations of the Muslim Brotherhood Eng. Youssef Nada commended the Deputy leader and the Acting General Guide of the Muslim Brotherhood, Mr Ibrahim Munir. Nada confirmed in a recorded message that "We know Mr Munir during our time in the prison. No one can claim that any of his behavior is outside Islam. The trust in him was established since the former General Guide " Muhammad Hamid Abu Al-Nasr" and all the general guides after him.

Nada added that "Munir" was responsible for the Muslim Brotherhood in England and then Europe. Then he was responsible for the Muslim Brotherhood outside Egypt. And when things changed in the Egypt, he became responsible for Egypt as well.

Nada stressed that the approval of Munir as responsible for the Muslim Brotherhood has been received from the group in Egypt following the arrest of Mahmoud Ezzat.

Nada continued, saying, "Although the Muslim Brotherhood has qualified people, but I see from my knowledge of Mr. Munir for more than a quarter of a century, that he is a person of who looks after the interests of the Muslim Brotherhood more than himself and his family". Nada also stressed that the Muslim Brotherhood members should not participate in sedition.

Nada concluded his speech with a message to the detained Muslim Brotherhood members, saying: No one has forgotten you, and it is our duty not to forget your issues. He added: "We must try as much as possible to remove the injustice from you".
