

Brotherhood Scholars committee stresses the necessity of the implementation correct binding shura and the adhering to its outcomes

The Muslim Brotherhood Scholar committee has called upon the Brotherhood to implement correct binding shura and adhere to its outcomes. They have asserted the need to work on getting honest and righteous members to take charge, stressing on the inevitability of unity as its much needed by the ummah. Behaviors that could cause any divergence must be avoided.

The scholars' committee confirmed that the pledge of allegiance to Mr. Ibrahim Munir as Deputy General Guide and Acting director is firm and certain. It is symbolic in these crucial times in the history of the brotherhood, and this necessitates every caring personal to respect this symbolism as it stands for the Brotherhood, its authenticity and unity.
