

MB Condolences on Death of Late President Geingob of Namibia, Who Supported Palestine at ICJ

The Muslim Brotherhood (MB) extends its sincere condolences to the leadership, government and people of the Republic of Namibia, and to His Excellency President Nangolo Mbumba, on the death of the late President Hage Geingob after a life full of struggle and giving, as he his life resisting the apartheid regime and pursuing his country's independence and progress.

The late president was credited with the revival of the issue of genocide committed by Germany in Namibia, and he remained a strong supporter of fair causes until his death, as his country has officially joined South Africa on the case it filed at the ICJ, accusing the Israeli occupation of committing genocide in the Gaza Strip.

While the MB its offers condolences to the people of Namibia, it calls on the free people of the world to follow the example of the strugglers for freedom and national independence and the defenders of human rights, regardless of religion, language or race.
