

Martyrdom of resistance leaders confirms the continued jihad and resilience path

In the Name of Allah, Most Gracious, Most Merciful

﴿ And never think of those who have been killed in the cause of Allah as dead. Rather, they are alive with their Lord, receiving provision. ﴾ (Al-Imran: 169)

With great glory and pride, and with our hearts filled with faith in Allah's victory and contentment with His judgment, the Muslim Brotherhood (MB) announces the martyrdom of a group of righteous leaders of the Palestinian resistance who were martyred in the field of honor and dignity, while staying on the frontlines of defending the land and the holy sites, setting the most wonderful examples of sacrifice and redemption. They gave their sacred lives for the freedom of their people and nation, in the face of the brutal aggression that continues its crimes against our land and holy sites.

The martyrdom of resistance leaders was only a new phase on the path of jihad, which has proven over the past months that it is moving forward with resilience and determination, never shaken by blows or weakened by sacrifices. On the ground, the Palestinian resistance has shown that the loss of leaders does not stop its path, rather increases its strength and robust, and confirms that this blessed movement (Hamas) is not about individuals, rather is a project of a nation that goes on the path of liberation with all faith and determination.

The blood of these leaders will remain a guiding star for all free people in the nation, as it was not sacrificed for Palestine alone, but on behalf of the entire Islamic nation, which must today pay this debt and continue to support the resistance in every possible way, materially, politically and in the media. In fact, the battle for liberation is not the responsibility of the Palestinians alone, rather the duty of the entire nation, whose glory will be only achieved by liberating its holy sites and restoring its usurped rights.

We, Muslim Brotherhood, emphasize that the path of jihad continues, and that the banner of resistance will not fall, but will remain raised high until the end of the occupation and the liberation of the land and holy sites. The blood of the martyrs will never be in vain, but will be new fuel to ignite the flame of confrontation and motivate future generations to go ahead on the path up to achievement of clear victory.

—To conclude, the Brotherhood extends its sincere condolences to Islamic Resistance Movement – Hamas, the Izz al-Din al-Qassam Brigades (IQB) and all the people of Palestine, and affirms that martyrdom is Allah’s choice for whomever He has blessed. It also stresses that it is the path of the prophets, and that the ascension of martyrs does not stop the resistance march, and their blood will be a torch of light and fire on the path of liberation, Allah willing.

﴿ And how many a prophet [fought and] with him fought many religious scholars. But they never lost assurance due to what afflicted them in the cause of Allah, nor did they weaken or submit. And Allah loves the steadfast.﴾ (Al Imran: 146).

Dr. Salah Abdel Haq

Acting Muslim Brotherhood General Guide

(Thursday, 30 Rajab 1446 AH / 30 January 2025 AD)